

I live in Vineland NJ. I live by myself and most evenings I turn in by 7 or 8pm because I am up at 4am. I do not want telemarketing calling me. I have been called at 9pm and hate that very much since I am usually getting ready to doze off and the phone rings. I have a new digital phone and cannot turn off the ringer. Please leave our law as they stand.